

Negatives

Je ne joue pas : I do not play

Je ne joue jamais : I never play.

Je ne joue plus : I don't play any more

Je ne joue rien : I don't play anything

Reflexive Verbs

Reflexive verbs have an extra pronoun, which translates as 'myself', 'yourself', 'himself', etc.

Je me lave: I wash myself

Tu te laves: You wash yourself

Vous vous lavez: You wash yourself

Il se lave: He washes himself

Elle se lave: She washes herself

Ils se lavent: They wash themselves

Elles se lavent: They wash themselves

Asking Questions

1) You can ask a question just by using a different intonation, making your voice rise at the end:

Tu parles français?

2) You can ask a question by adding “est-ce que” at the front of the phrase:

Est-ce que tu parles français ?

3) You can ask a question by changing the word order and put the verb first (followed by a hyphen):

Parles-tu français?